

Did You Know?

If a youth is diagnosed with an intellectual disability or a developmental disability (Physical), the youth should be placed on the Supports for Community Living (SCL) waiting list at the earliest age possible. The social services worker must complete the Supports for Community Living application (MAP-620) and submit it along with a psychological assessment including IQ score, and an adaptive assessment to:

Lisa Mullikin-BHDID (100 Fair Oaks Lane 4W-C, Frankfort, KY, 40602)

The ssw will receive a yearly letter confirming the need for the youth to remain on the SCL waiting list. If for some reason this letter is not received, the ssw will need to contact Lisa Mulligan at Lisa.Mullikin@ky.gov and ensure the youth remains on the SCL waiting list.

The ssw is required to visit all DCBS youth monthly placed in SCL programs. The ssw should complete page 1 of the "SCL Program Visit-Review of Records and Facility Form" document. A copy of this form should be scanned and e-mailed to the SCL Liaison in Central Office, Charles Gary Bruin.

If you have any questions regarding the SCL process or the Individualized Placement Agreement process, please contact Charles.Bruin@ky.gov.

Please see: SCL Program Visit - Review of Records and Facility Form

"Did You Know?" is brought to you weekly from the Coordinating Services for Children Workgroup.
